

Dalton Ranch Golf Club is an 18-hole, semi-private golf course situated in the magnificent Animas Valley at the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, and is only six miles from historic Durango, CO. The towering red cliffs of the San Juan Mountains envelope Dalton's 270 acres and the Animas River, which winds through this amazing valley. Originally owned by Dalton Land & Cattle Co., local rumors point to the infamous Dalton Gang having purchased the property on one of their many excursions from the California coast to the midwest.

Designed by Ken Dye, Dalton Ranch measures 7,002 yards from the longest tee and features 5 sets of tees for different skill levels. The development for the golf course and housing community began in 1991, and the club opened its doors on July 13th, 1993. The club currently offers corporate, social, junior executive, and executive memberships.

Dalton Ranch provides a serene and beautiful place to live, experience nature, nurture new friendships, and, of course, enjoy world-class golf. The atmosphere is friendly and inviting for all members and guests.
